Warm Weather Road Cycling Training Camps In Spain and the Canary Islands from only £69 per night

There is nothing quite like a Club Activo warm weather Road Cycling Training Camp to reward, motivate and focus your riders and coaches. Choose from our first class destinations in Fuerteventura, Tenerife and Calella on the Barcelona coast!

"It was a pleasure to be able to hire good quality road bikes from Club Activo. As well as a doing a couple of independent rides, we also booked some of the tours including the magnificent 'Masca Loop'. Having a back up vehicle meant that we could start the ride on quieter roads and didn't have to worry about carrying supplies or navigating, as Tony was waiting at the junctions to point us in the right direction! All in all, the bike hire and tours made the camp and I can thoroughly recommend it"
